Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 8th May 1954

S.R.O. 176.—The following Bye-laws for the control and supervision of flour mills in the Cantonment of Aurangabad, made by the Cantonment Board, Aurangabad, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act namely:—

Bye-Laws for the control and supervision of Flour Mills in Aurangabad Cantonment.

1. In these Bye-laws, 'flour mill' means any mill grinding flour, which is run with the aid of electricity or oil.

2. No new flour mill shall be established except within the areas notified under section 43-A of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924).

3. No person shall establish or maintain a flour mill except under a licence in the form annexed to these Bye-laws issued by the Board.

4. The building or premises in which a flour mill is proposed to be installed shall be:—

- (i) at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrine and cesspits,
- (ii) a solid structure able to withstand the vibration of the engine with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure,
- (iii) paved with concrete or cement, and
- (iv) having 5 feet high cemented walls with a ceilinged roof, properly ventilated and lighted.

5. A flour mill shall be used only for grinding foodgrains which are properly cleaned.

6. No engine or dynamo of more than 12 H. P. shall be installed. Such machinery shall be fixed in a railed enclosure on a concrete foundation away from the walls of the building in such a manner that the vibrations and noise of the machine do not affect the building and the residents thereof.

7. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of adequate height, so fixed as to eliminate the smoke nuisance to neighbours.

8. A flour mill shall be worked only between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P.M. and shall be open for inspection during such period by any Officer or servant of the Board duly authorised by it in this behalf.

9. The premises, apparatus and the containers used for the purpose of a flour mill, shall be kept scrupulously clean and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as free from any contagious disease, by the authorised Medical Authority.

10. An application for a licence referred to in bye-law 3 shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in the form annexed to these bye-laws.

11. A breach of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of continued contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to 5 rupees for every day after the first day during which the contravention continues.

12. If the holder of a licence commits a breach of these bye-laws, his licence shall be liable to cancellation and shall not be renewed until such time as he has carried out the directions of the Executive Officer, to his satisfaction, for the purpose of enforcing these bye-laws.
